

Life in Christ

“My sheep hear My voice,
and I know them,
and they follow Me.
And I give them eternal life,
and they shall never perish;
neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.”

John 10:27-28

“My Sheep Hear My Voice”

To be His disciple is to hear Him.

- How can we truly hear Jesus, some 2000+ years after He lived among us?
- Who is the Holy Spirit, and how does His work as "another helper" unify Christians today?
- If you hear Jesus, should you also hear His Apostles and the scriptures they left behind?
- How can you know that you are following the voice of Jesus, and not another?
- How will you be changed if you ignore the other voices in our world and truly hear Him?

“I Know Them and They Follow Me”

The church is a group of people, called out from the world to live as His Body, united by His Spirit. Inspired letters written to early Christians show us how this should look in practice.

- Consider churches in cities like Corinth, Ephesus, Colossae, Philippi. How did Satan challenge them, and how did they remain united in following Jesus?
- Following Jesus will certainly change your Sunday mornings... but what about the rest of your week? How does knowing (and being known by) Jesus transform your relationship to your family, your neighbors, your boss, your country?
- You are not alone as a Christian. How do the blessings God gives us in His Church help us grow in Christ?

“I Give Them Eternal Life”

Christians not only have abundant life today, we have eternal life in Jesus, the One who is, and was, and is to come.

- What is eternal life and how can it be ours?
- How could Jesus promise eternal life to His believers?
- How can we be certain of what comes after this life?
- In a world that is ever changing, how can we be confident in God’s unfailing promises?
- I feel unworthy of what Jesus has promised me. Is that a problem?
- What is Heaven and who will be there?
